"Recensione ""I have been getting great response with the books!"" - Jeni Kardinal, SeaTrek Sailing Adventures?Congratulations for being blessed with the art of storytelling. I love your story and fingers crossed millions of Indonesian children would love it too. ?? Petr Hindrich, Green Books""Thank you for sending your book. It is just wonderful... I think the message is very timely through your story.""

- Aprile Denise, Yayasan Literasi Anak Indonesia L'autore Yvette is an English teacher who was inspired to write ""Wayan and the Turtle King"" after spending almost two years in Indonesia. While living in Indonesia, she couldn't help but notice that plastic was everywhere, including in the ocean. As a scuba diver and freediver, the marine environment has always been very important to her. By writing this book, she hopes to educate Indonesian children, and children worldwide, about why we should stop using plastic. Fabianus Bayu is a graphic artist from Indonesia. He is known for his environmentally- themed illustrations on Instagram (Shirohyde).".
