"Reseña del editor Electrical lines that turn into the strings of a massive guitar in the sky. A man dragging a bed sheet, which turns into a road, across an empty field. A charming cottage on an island that is actually the back of a giant fish. Digital photography artist Erik Johansson has achieved international fame by taking and then combining photos into surreal, M.C. Escher-like worlds. This is his first book, and it captures the improbable and impossible in fifty distinctive images. Digital artist Erik Johansson starts with a simple hand-drawn sketch, but what you see in the end is anything but simple: dazzlingly realistic scenes made of hundreds of photographs—all meticulously staged and propped and then stitched together in software—offer a glimpse into wholly invented, incredibly detailed worlds. While shooting takes only a few days, Johansson's planning and retouching process each take months, resulting in out-of-this-world images that have won him fans worldwide. Here's what people are saying about the Erik Johansson's work: "Erik Johansson has created a portfolio of stunning images combining photography, raw materials, and digital editing." "Daily Mail UK "Erik Johansson " has [taken] the blogosphere by storm by producing heavily manipulated photographs [that] invert aesthetics as we understand them, inspired by MC Escher and other surrealist artists." "Independent UK Biografía del autor Erik Johansson is a Swedish photographer and retoucher who lives in Prague. His meticulous photomontages have garnered him a significant online following (including 350K Facebook fans and a TED talk that's been watched more than 3 million times). His work is currently on display at Stockholm's famed Fotografiska Museum."
